Passion for Ceramic

Combining the excellence of the traditional Italian artisanship with the latest technologies and with a constant attention to the changing trends of design and functionality, Axa, since 1995, looks for a new concept of bathroom, able to express the deep passion underlying the ceramic product; from this purpose comes the idea which is revealed thanks to the perfect blending of expert hands, mold, water, air and fire, in a complex process fully satisfied only by the creation of unique products making the bath the absolute protagonist of the home space.

DECUS

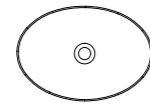

design by Giancarlo Angelelli

Decus...decoration, the name's origin of this washbasins range prooposed in rectangular and elliptical shape in two dimensions.

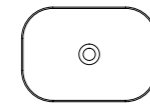

Essential overtop sinks, a neat and linear design featuring a band that runs all along the edge.

Traditional aesthetic in contrast with a thin edge and a soft deep bowl, a formal synthesis perfectly matching with the functionality of the object.

COSA

design by Giancarlo Angelelli

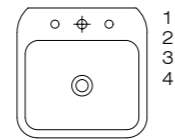

Cosa... the most used term worldwide to indicate forms, objects and artifacts.
A universal concept to develop a new collection of washbasins of different sizes and typologies, available with and without tap hole.

A versatile "basic" line that stands out through the aesthetic detail of the slight wall curve and the depth, formal details that proportion the product from the smaller size up to the widest cm.120.
